

Would you rather be thought of as a cheater or a liar?

If you could get into a fight with any person living or dead and know that there would be no consequences afterwards who would you fight and why?

If money were not the issue what would you like to do as a career when you get older?

Come up with your own definition of the word

“Bargleslap”

After you give the definition you must use the word in a sentence.

What is one thing that you were frightened of when you were a child? Does that still frighten you today?

Tell about your most embarrassing moment.

Would you rather go to a huge party with lots of people or have a quiet dinner with a few close friends?

What is love?
(baby don't hurt me, don't hurt me, no more)

What is the best gift that you have ever given anyone?

What do you think is the biggest mistake that teenagers in today's world make?

What do you think is the biggest misunderstanding that adults have about teenagers today?

Would you rather be famous for something that you aren't actually good at, or really good at something, but live in relative obscurity?

What is your art? What do you do to express yourself?

Why do you think that the government requires that teenagers go to school? What benefits do you think that you get out of school?

What do you think is the coolest miracle that Jesus performed while He was here on Earth?

Spell the word, “periwinkle” backwards.

If you were a superhero what would your super power and your super weakness be?

If you could choose what would you eat for your last meal?

What is your biggest fear?

What are three things that make you smile?

Would you do the following for $5000
(assuming that you couldn't tell anyone that you were doing it for money)

Stand up in the lunch room at school, say “look at me I’m pizza face” and rub your pizza on your face. You must do this at least 10 different days in order to qualify for the money.

Would you do it?

What is your best memory of this youth group or this church?